BANKRUPTCY RULING

Chicago, Nov. 9.—A new ruling on preferences under the national bank-rupty law has been announced by Judge Robilsant in the United States district court. It is held that the giving of a chattel mortgage within four months of the filling of a petition in bankruptcy, in pursuance of an agreement to give the mortgage made more than four nonths prior to that time, is not a preference within the meaning of the statute. The decidion was given in the case of John Boetter, proprietor of the Germania garden.
